We the graduating class of Billerica Memorial High School wish to dedicate the 1962 Warrior to Anthony J. Zarella. To his guidance we owe much of our success in high school. Mr. Zarella has been a faithful and respected friend to all. His dedication to work will always be an example for us. We all have a great respect for his honesty, integrity, and loyalty. His influence has left a lasting effect on us.

Class of 1962

Mrs. Cooney: We the senior class wish to express our sincere gratitude and appreciation for all the work you have done for us and all the pleasure you have given us in the past four years.

Class of 1962

To the Students:

"Know Thyself"

If we completely know ourselves we shall govern ourselves wisely. We shall acknowledge our limitations and be proud of our capabilities. Thus, by good conduct we shall accomplish much, and the world will be a better place by our having lived in it. Therefore, as your advisors, may we say "Know Thyself" so that your dreams and desires may be realized.

Dorothy A. Richardson
Marjorie F. Cooney

Miss Richardson: We would like to express our gratitude to you for the fine way you have counseled us concerning our financial matters.

Class of 1962

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

This yearbook is a memorial record of your years in High School--to your academic achievements, to your extra curricula activities, and above all to the friendships formed. It will become more and more valuable to you as the years roll on.

Many succeeding generations have proved that your training here is very effective in preparing you for successful careers. Most of you will become leaders in your communities and will soon advance to positions of influence and responsibility. You will come to know many people but you will never know the others in quite the way you know your classmates as you graduate in the Spring of 1962.

We who remain behind at the High School are still interested in you and hope you will keep us informed of your progress. You have our best wishes always.

FREDERICK C. RIEL
Superintendent of Schools

Mr. Riel;

Your leadership has been a steadying influence on us during our four happy years at Billerica Memorial High School. We are proud to have known you during our high school career, and hope to become a credit to you and the school in future years.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

As you step out from beneath the sheltering roof of home and high school, you will step into a chaotic world. Never before have all peoples been so gripped by fear, so rent by uncertainty. Never before has science thrust forward with such unconsidered and awesome speed. Never before has so much of man's mind and effort been given over to materialistic thinking.

My great hope for you is that at some moment during your four years in high school you have discovered some thought, some principle, some bit of philosophy which will help to lead you through this gigantic tumult to an inner peace. If you have not yet found it, seek it, for without peace of mind and contentment, anything else that you may accomplish during the years ahead will seem to you unsatisfactory.

ROYAL S. ADAMS
Principal

Mr. Adams;

We will always remember your personal example of leadership during the past four years. But more than that, we respect you for the invaluable services you have offered to us, and to Billerica Memorial High School itself. You will always remain in our highest esteem and we wish you the best of luck for the future.

We would like to thank the students and faculty for your interest in the "Warrior." If it had not been for you, much of this yearbook would not have been possible.

It has been a pleasure working with such a willing and helpful group and we hope that your efforts will be appreciated by others in the future as much as they have been by us.

Football

Under the able leadership of the Head Coach "Chuck" Lampson, assisted by Coaches Frank Luciano and "Hank" Wilson, the 1961 squad completed its season with a 3-5 record. Because we will be losing only five starters, our hopes for next year are very high.

They play rough!

It's mine and you can't have it.

Da! What else is there?

You see him over there?

How about the Little guy in the middle?

Tea, anyone?

Tag, you're it!

But I didn't do anything!

Can't I go to the basement now?

Gung Ho!

Yes, I think I could be your President.

Now, when I say go---

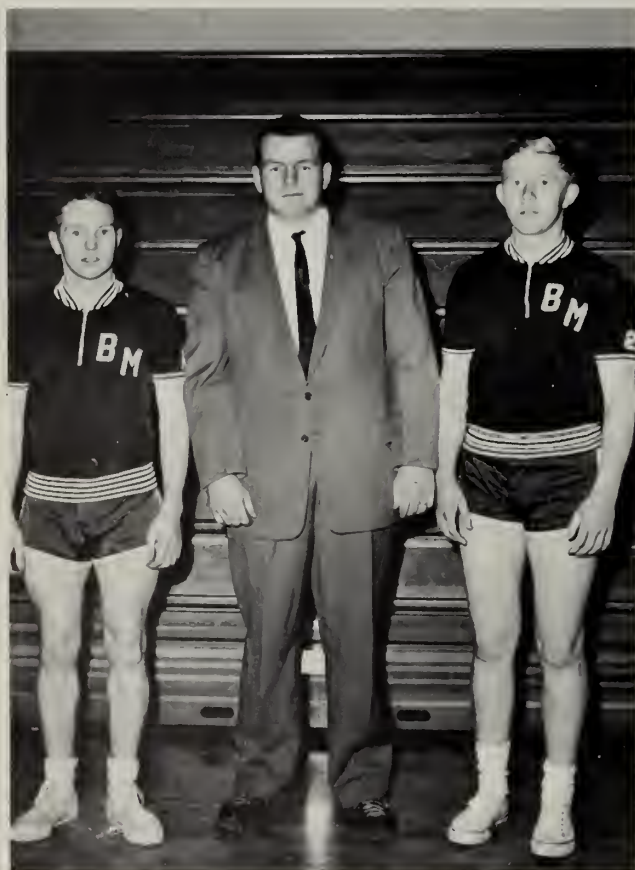

Hey, wait for me!

Just you wait one cotton pickin minute!

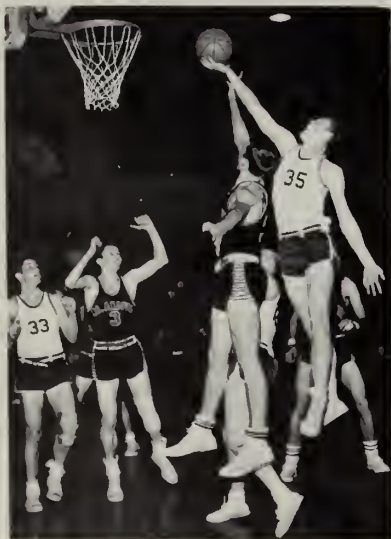

Basketball

Because of the early yearbook deadline, the Boys' Basketball Team has not completed their season. Under the able coaching of Mr. Gracie, with the help of co-captains Paul Doherty and Glen Senet, his team plans on doing quite well in the Lowell Suburban League. With Paul Doherty the only Senior leaving the team this year, B.M.H.S. can expect a very good team for next year.

Track

Cross Country

Both the Varsity and Junior Varsity Cross Country Teams, coached by Roger Samson, enjoyed a very successful season. The Varsity posted nine victories while suffering one loss. The Junior Varsity had a record of eight wins and one loss.

The Harriers also continued their undefeated streak in the Lowell Suburban Competition which now stands at fifteen victories.

George Martin captained the team during the season to its apparent Lowell Suburban Championship. George was also the outstanding performer in the area by winning all ten Varsity meets as an individual.

Baseball

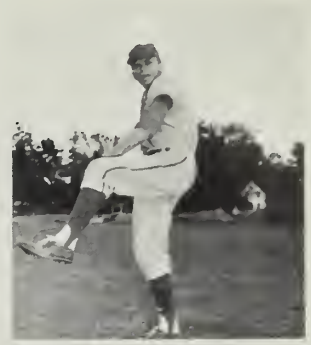

According to coach Jack O'Brien, this year's Baseball Team gives promise of being great. However, much will depend upon the pitching and catching. With a veteran team on hand and a fleet of willing Sophomores, Billerica should have a very successful season.

Returning varsity players are: co-captains; Joe Burke and Ken MacPherson, Paul Doherty, Hank Ouellette, Richie Ouellette, Dan Ferren, Paul Picholicz, Brian Cunio, Larry Gearin, Jack Musgrave, Jim Zanino, and Gordon Burke.

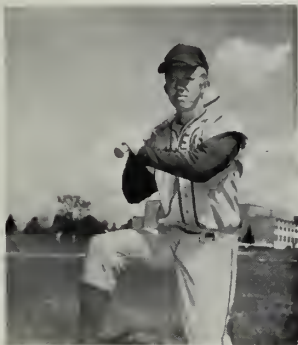

Charlie Martel, Tommy Sullivan, Dave Scott, Phil Bergstrom, and Larry Alting will probably be strong candidates.

Softball

Although it is impossible to accurately foretell the success of the 1962 softball team, Coach Hood hopes that it will be as successful as the past few years have been. Last year's team completed the season with a 6 and 3 record. With Captain Rosalie Martell, Rita Mahoney, Pat Harvey, Ruthie Paradise, Marsha Coombs, Jean Doherty, Sandra Bavis, Barbara McGuinness, Lauraine Riel, and Claire DeWolfe returning to the squad as starters the outlook for the coming year is promising.

That Wonderful Year

Class Prophecy
by Roberta Ward

That wonderful year was 1972. The economic and political stature of the United States was at an all-time high. Such prosperity never before occurred in all history. Especially concerned were the Russians, and who would blame them? With the class of 1962 of Billerica Memorial High School running the country, they had good reason to be worried.

1972 was an election year and BERT BECKWITH won the U.S. Presidency by a landslide. He soon announced the members of his cabinet to be some of his old classmates. JOHN GURICH was named Attorney-General; RONALD LORANGER was Postmaster-General, and EDWARD PIACENZA headed the Naval Department. The President created a new cabinet post by naming EDWARD JERVIS Poet Laureate, and GARY KILGORE as his assistant.

Highlighting the social aspect of the election was the inauguration ball, planned by KATHRYN HAMELIN. DIANE DOW could be seen at the punch bowl serving the many distinguished guests. Among them were RICHARD BROWN, ambassador to France, and WILLIAM STEVENS who became a multimillionaire with his vast Texas oil fields.

In his State of the Union message, the President commended JOHN SANTOS' excellent work as head of submarine operations, and DONALD SNOWDEN, who was making a goodwill tour entertaining royalty with his dancing talent.

Americans dominated the world sports scene, thanks to the efforts of PRISCILLA PARADISE and PAUL DOHERTY, who were bringing home gold medals from the Olympics. LARRY GEARIN'S bust had been placed in the Baseball Hall of Fame. FRED SULLIVAN had won the world auto-racing competition. An account of the event was written by sports writer BRIAN CUNIO, who reported that Fred's chief mechanics were HARRY ALLAN and ALLEN AHOLA. He was awarded the 4-foot trophy by GROVER GARRANT; DAVID GILE was flagman. In the same sports section, women's sports writer, KATHLEEN CALLAHAN wrote of the upcoming ladies' wrestling match between MARJORIE ELLINWOOD and ELAINE DYER.

The space program of the country was in full production as '62 class members controlled all explorations. A tense moment occurred when JOHN TRAINOR was ready to launch KATHERINE HAYES to Jupiter. Despite protests from PATRICIA SEWELL, she made her trip and landed successfully. Only a week later, ALBERT MITTON was sent to Mars, and on his arrival, he discovered that EMMET BEANE had been a stowaway on his spaceship. JOHN MUSGRAVE decided that his cows should be the first "herd shot 'round the world," and attempted what everyone thought would be a complete failure. HENRY OUELLET stood by with his fire truck and ROBERT GUANIERI held the fire hose ready for disaster. Finally, PHYLLIS MALANDRINO came running excitedly with a message from Washington as WARREN DAVIS stopped the countdown. The notice read that head of the Department of Agriculture, JOHN MORAN, was not impressed with the operation. DENNIS SMITH, who had been ready with his match to fire the herd, was the only one disappointed.

The Russians were being outwitted on all counts. HAROLD CHAREST'S spy ring, which included ANTONIO PROIA, BUZZY TREWORGY, and DONALD TAYLOR, were securing vital information as were RUSSELL FRASER and MARSHALL HOLMAN with photos of Russia's space program. The spies revealed that KAREN WHITMARSH had been jailed in Moscow after winning a debate with Khrushchev. Counterfeiters JOHN FALCONE and CHARLES HALLENBORG were making attempts to inflate the Russian currency.

Back in the United States, the MARY McISAAC Charm School was producing the most charming people in the country. With instructors REGINA HARTIGAN, ANNE O'BRIEN, PHEBE MITCHELL, and BUNNY LEE, the most hopeless cases were transformed into "beauties." Some of her most accomplished graduates were: FRED MARTELL, PHILIP LEWEIN, RODDY McINTYRE, and LESTER JOHNSON.

The world's fair was held in Billerica that year, where RONALD SHAW's novel, "The Ups and Downs of Being an Elevator Operator," won The Pulitzer Prize. FREDERICK PAIS and CAROLYN WELLS, formerly our class artists painted the murals for the fair. Among the visitors was DIANA WETHERBEE who had the title of "Madame Flutterby" after marrying an oriental prince.

Class members were also managing affairs in Hollywood. MARCIA TAYLOR won the Academy Award for her performance in her movie, "The Little Nun Who Never Was." It was produced by ARTHUR STILLINGS and co-starred DIANE McILVAIN.

While visiting the studio of ROBERT HOBBS' and RODEL PROIA'S latest adult cartoon called "The Beezebubs," guests were usually bombarded by a mob of frantic teenagers who were chasing film star JOE BURKE for autographs.

All the Hollywood stars were wearing the new ELLEN FOREMAN creations. Her annual fashion show featured FLORENCE HARRING and MARY TRANK as models.

A big scandal of the day was that of the great Wall St. tycoon, DOUG GRATTON, accused of evading his income taxes. The investigation was being conducted by federal agent JAMES REID.

Another news-maker was the trial of CAREN MATSON, who was accused of Reckless Driving. ROBERT GRANFIELD was her lawyer, and ERNEST CAHILL served as the stormy prosecutor. Character witness was CHRISTENE LAVALLE, accompanied by LINDA JOHNSON. The jury consisted of MAUREEN FLAHERTY, BARBARA SNYDER, ANDREA VOSE, ANNA LONGO, ROBERT SCHARN, and JOHN COSTELLO. Clerk was KENNETH SLATER, and judge THOMAS FALL announced the verdict.

The top movie of the year was entitled "Hicksville, U.S.A." A country hoe-down scene featured ROBERT COTY as guitarist. JOHN BARBIERI was the caller for the square dance. A hog-calling contest was held among the group. Competitors were PAT HARVEY, MARY HYNES, DORIS SILVA, and CAROL ROSE. Judge for the contest was CHARLOTTE KEANY who announced a tie between Doris and Carol. Also in the movie was a pie throwing contest with pies baked by ELIZABETH HANLON, NANCY JOHNSON, SUZANNE WILDER, and JOYCE KEMP. Contestants were ROGER GIBSON, JAY MCMULLEN, and ANTHONY RICCIOTTI. They got out of hand, however, and soon sheriff JAMES QUIGLEY, with his deputies JOSEPH DOHERTY and GORDON RATTA were at the scene to quell the disturbance.

In the limelight of the social whirl was the marriage of JOAN NARDINI to a prize fighter. The preacher, THOMAS WALSH, was rather disturbed, as was usher PAUL GOVE, when the bride arrived 10 hours late announcing that she had changed her mind.

Also on the social calendar was the debut of GLENDA SCHOFF. Attending the gala event with their fiances were NANCY ELLIOT, JO-ANNE WILLIAMS, and NANCY BORAZZO. GORDON BURKE soon arrived in his 1972 mink-upholstered pink convertible. He brought with him CHARLES DUARTE and RICHARD LEONE who came hoping to hear a lecture by PETER HAWKES on "Applied Mischief." Catering for the affair was done by WILLIAM SLOPER and RICHARD THORNTON. Discussing the latest in cuisine with them were LOUIS CARCIOFI, JOSEPH GIBELLI, and JAMES DE MARINO, who had just returned from the world-famous "Pizza Palace" in Italy. With them was their head waitress PHYLLIS ANCIELLO. SALLY SMITH and SALLY BAYBUTT attended hoping to meet some eligible bachelors. They ran into STEVE CURRAN, owner of a peanut-butter factory, along with his chief peanut taster, JIM CALLAHAN.

Other successful businessmen of the day were RICHARD SMOOT, president of a blubber industry in Alaska, and his associate, JOHN PICKOWICZ, who manufactured ice cubes for the Eskimos.

Television stars included WAYNE BROWN whose program "The Midnight Menace" was a top favorite. Announcer CHARLES MORRISON appeared during commercials advertising "Ophelia Heartburn" anti-acid tonic. Making a special appearance one evening, the RICHARD ALVES band played a medley of popular tunes written by JAMES CONNERS and sung by DENISE ALLARD. JOHN SVRCEK appeared giving a demonstration of the new dance craze, "The Twitch," which, he announced, was a specialty at his dance studio where he had just hired GAIL MCGURN and ROBERT VEINOT as instructors.

A head-liner in all the papers was the name of private investigator GEORGE MARTIN, who solved the mystery of ROSALIE MARTELL and RITA MAHONEY, who had been missing in New York City for ten years after getting lost on the class trip. They had been working as hat check girls at DANIEL O'DONNELL'S night club where LEO ST. CYR'S "Fumbling Tumbling Act" was a main attraction.

The Miss America Pageant was held in Billerica that year. It was an exciting moment as master of ceremonies RICHARD PLOURDE named CINDY TONKS as winner. Her wardrobe for her world tour included hats from DOROTHY MAJOR'S millinery, luggage from JAMES GAUDET'S Leather Industry, and flowers from the MARGARET GILL Floral Shop. Miss America was given a fur stole from WILLIAM EGAN'S mink ranch, and rubies from jewel merchant DAVID CAFARELLI.

In the field of medicine, HAROLD BACON discovered a cure for the common cold by making tests on his associate, CRAIG DUSTIN. His nurse, HELEN CLARK, was giving reports to his secretary, JANE CONNELL, who, in turn, related details of the discovery to HOWARD BROWN, head of the medical association.

Another scientific achievement was MARGARET O'BRIEN'S new vanishing cream which she sold at $20 a jar to such prominent social women of the day as DOROTHY MARCOTTE, DORIS LITTLEWOOD, and MARCIA REDDINGTON.

At the annual National Dog Show, CATHERINE GROTH'S prize poodles took all the honors. They were groomed by RUTH O'CONNELL, and dyed pink and blue by LALIA BOHANNON.

Appearing on "What's My Secret," emceed by ARTHUR BURNHAM, was BARBARA ROTHWELL. Celebrities on the panel were PATRICIA SHACK, CHARLOTTE SANS-SOUCIE, CAROLINE FRITZ, MARY GILL, and JANET BLAISDELL. They successfully guessed her secret, which was that she had just been hired as lion tamer at FOREST IRONS' circus where JUDY COPPOLA, and MARY JEAN GRACE had an act with ponies and geese from HELEN LANDRY'S animal farm.

MARIE PYCHE'S picture appeared in every newspaper after she was named "Homemaker of the Year." When interviewed by KAREN AHOLA, she said that she always used PATRICIA SANDS cake mixes and appliances from the RONALD GIROUX Electric Company. She was featured in "Better Kitchens," a magazine edited by MILANY BARONI, where she demonstrated the latest in modern cooking utensils by GLADYS EAGLES. She was given a free trip to Honolulu by IRENE REGAN'S department store. Stewardess SHEILA BAKER greeted her at the airport and escorted her to the hotel managed by JUDITH LEVY and HENRIETTA MURRAY; and where WALTER SLOPER was janitor.

Working at KAREN THOMPSON'S Modelling Agency in Paris were SUZANNE TUCKER and BARBARA VENGREN. They rented an apartment from NAOMI DE BOW on the Champs Elysees and dined at PAT RICHARD'S sidewalk cafe where hors d'oeuvres made by GLORIA BOURQUE were a specialty, served by waitresses PAT QUINLAN and ROBERTA WARD.

Class History

As we stand on the threshold of life, the door to the future, our thoughts often drift back through the years. Remember when we were freshmen and how lost and bewildered we were those first few days? Whoever would have thought that someday we'd be the leaders of the school! It wasn't long though before we adapted to our new surroundings and with the aid of class advisors Mrs. Cooney and Miss Richardson we elected the following to head the class: Chris Fay, president; Bert Beckwith, vice president; Bunny Lee, secretary; and Janet Blaisdell, treasurer.

There always seemed to be something to keep us busy--cheering the football team to victory, ice skating, Student Council, the Smoke Signal, basketball tryouts, pajama parties and record hops.

Spring arrived and the topic of every conversation was the freshman dance "April in Paris." The theme included champagne glasses, berets and many other French influenced decorations. The dance was a tremendous success and how proud we were when we heard all the wonderful comments about the lovely decorations and we certainly agreed it was worth the time and effort.

The dramatic club produced its annual show and many freshmen took part in the festivities. Spring also saw the long awaited cheering tryouts and after days of practicing and anticipation Cilla Paradise was chosen to join the squad. Summer arrived and we left the hallowed halls of Billerica High for two leisurely months of nothing but fun.

September 1959 found us a year older and ready to embark on a new career as sophomores. Mrs. Cooney and Miss Richardson called a meeting of the class and we settled down to the business at hand, electing class officers. After two days of nominations and counting ballots we decided upon: Gordy Burke, president; Bunny Lee, vice president; Marilyn Slater, secretary; and Cookie Regan, treasurer. "Harvest Hop" was the name chosen for our sophomore dance and decorations included corn stalks, black cats and witches, all giving a very Halloween atmosphere. The disc jockey was Don Parker who commented on how well behaved the students of Billerica High were.

It was certainly a year for football as the celebrated varsity captured undisputed first place in the Lowell Suburban League competition. The Jayvees, to which many sophomores belonged, followed in their footsteps by winning the Jayvee Suburban title. Also during the fall many members of our class were seen earnestly practicing for the dramatic club show "Circus Carousel."

As Christmas approached, preparations were made for the G.A.A.'s annual "Snow Queen" dance. By nomination and popular vote lovely Phebe Mitchell was chosen as sophomore attendant.

Under the direction of Mr. Daley, Billerica High's first debating and oratorical societies were formed and Karen Thompson won second prize in the oratorical contest.

On the basketball scene the girls varsity team took top place in the Suburban League. Two sophomores who contributed a lot to the success of the squad were first string players Cilla Paradise and Gail McGurn.

After a long, cold winter the days grew warm and pleasant. Cheering tryouts were held with much anticipation and five girls were chosen to join the squad. They were: Bunny Lee, Caren Matson, Phebe Mitchell, Glenda Schoff and Cindy Tonks.

The Jayvee baseball team, captained by Paul Doherty and Henry Oulette, copped the Lowell Suburban League title after a very successful undefeated season. Our track team, lead by George Martin won the first Lowell Suburban Championship meet.

Final exams were given and then summer was upon us again. But these two months were short-lived as we soon found ourselves on the G-floor and enjoying a new role as upperclassmen. As before, the first thing Mrs. Cooney and Miss Richardson did was to call a meeting of the entire junior class to discuss election of class officers and the schedule for the school year. Those who were chosen to lead our class were: Steve Curran, president; John Santos, vice president; Denise Allard, secretary; and Barbie Hosmer treasurer.

Activities began early that year with many junior boys making the varsity football team, and the girls field hockey team going undefeated for the first time. "Harvest Frolics," sponsored by the Dramatic Club proved marvelous entertainment for many and fun for the large number of students who participated in it. At the semi-formal "Victory Dance" Glenda Schoff and Cindy Tonks were the two capable girls chosen as head cheerleaders for the following fall and winter.

In December we received from Deigest and Clust the traditional class ring of green and gold and soon afterward we started the long to be remembered drive for class dues. December was also the month that saw Phebe Mitchell again chosen as attendant at the G.A.A. "Snow Queen" dance.

For the second year in a row the girls basketball team won the Suburban League Championship and went on to greater things by capturing first place in the Ashby Tournament and walking off with many trophies. Cilla Paradise was selected to be part of the All Star team. The cheerleaders also took the cheering trophy home to add to the many cups already won over the years.

The Beacon Light chapter of the National Honor Society invited the following juniors as new members: Sheila Baker, Milany Baroni, Kathleen Callahan, John Christian, Cathrine Groth, Kathrine Hayes, Albert Mitton, John Moran, Priscilla Paradise, Karen Thompson, Mary Trank, Roberta Ward, Karen Whitmarsh and Jo-Anne Williams.

In the spring the first thing to head the list of activities was cheering tryouts. Again anticipation mounted as the girls tried their best to meet the high standards. Those selected to join the squad this year were: Ellin Foreman, Mary McIssac, and Peggy O'Brien.

The big event of our high school social career came upon us soon after. Under a red and gold canopy with torches for sentries and a colosseum to gaze upon sat beautiful and poised Glenda Schoff, queen of "Roman Holiday," with her date Brian Cunio. Her attendants, who were escorted to their waiting chariots on either side of the throne were: Karen Thompson, Irene Regan, Denise Allard, Roberta Ward, Phebe Mitchell and Joni Nardini.

With summer fast approaching we closed the doors on another year. During these two months everyone looked forward to the fall semester and the days ahead as Seniors superior. Well, the inevitable arrived and we found ourselves in full charge of the exclusive S-floor.

Bert Beckwith who was elected president in his most important of years proved himself worthy and capable of the high office. He was assisted by: Louie Carciofi, vice-president; Bunny Lee, secretary; and Marcia Reddington, treasurer, all desirable to be at the top of the Totem Pole.

Although crippled by the loss of many players, the spirit minded Warriors of the football field, captained by Paul Doherty and Charlie Hallenborg, proved themselves worthy. Seniors who contributed greatly to the squad with their loyalty and determination were: Freddy Martell, John Santos, Emmett Beane, Dave Caferelli, and Roddy MacIntyre.

The cross country team, under the supervision of Coach Sampson won the conference championship and added another feather to our headdress of many. George Martin ran his way to first place and went undefeated for the season.

Showing their ability once more the girls field hockey team captained by Rita Mahoney and Cilla Paradise had another successful undefeated season.

Tri-Delta meetings and presentation of "Curtain Time" were among the many activities scheduled during the fall. Bunny Lee showed her versatility as dramatic club president and Kathy Hayes her capability as Tri-Delta president. The selection of new National Honor Society members: Bert Beckwith, Gail McGurn, Ronald Shaw and Sally Smith and the election of officers: John Moran, president; Cilla Paradise, vice-president; Kathy Hayes recording secretary; Milany Baroni, corresponding secretary and John Christian, treasurer was another hi-light of the season.

In December preparations were well under way for the annual Christmas Dance. The theme "Candy Cane Coronation" was accepted unanimously and holding true to the festive season, lovely and blonde Cindy Tonks our own "Snow Queen" sat on a candy cane throne. Her court consisted of seniors: Glenda Schoff, Phebe Mitchell and Bunny Lee, with undergrads Maryanne Gambale, Patti Columbus and Peggy Hec.

A great honor was bestowed upon Priscilla Paradise as she received the Good Citizenship Award for excellence scholastically and socially. Our president, Bert Beckwith was chosen to represent Billerica High on Good Government Day in Boston.

February was the month for contests as the cheerleaders trekked off to Needham for the annual cheering competition. A meritorious girls basketball team which was a zenith of skill, sportsmanship and school spirit showed their undisputed ability to stay on top by again taking all honors in the Suburban League. Their perfect record was only marred by one heart-breaking loss in the second game of competition at the Ashby Tourney. The never say die attitude of these terrific Indians, captained by Kathy Callahan and Cilla Paradise enabled them to take into possession the consolation and coveted Good Sportsmanship trophies. The cheerleaders, also remaining true to their reputation came in first place in the cheering competition for the second year in a row and brought more honors upon B.M.H.S.

Our truly lovely senior prom was held in March. Looking sophisticated and gorgeous on a pink shell like throne, surrounded by a sea of blue in the middle of a scented tropical garden reigned Queen Phebe Mitchell, who lent enchantment and sparkle to the theme "Blue Hawaii." Crowning the Queen and her radiant princesses: Peggy O'Brian, Cindy Tonks, Cilla Paradise, Diane MacIlvain, Karen Thompson and Carol Rose was junior prom queen Glenda Schoff.

During the spring of this, our last year, everyone's attention was focused on the variety show, "Operation Broadway," sponsored by the girls and boys varsity basketball teams and cheerleaders, to raise money for two separate trips--one to Jug End Barn and the other to a basketball camp.

Our class trip to New York proved different and exciting. An extensive tour of the colossal city, including an impressive tour of the United Nations were a few hi-lights of this long to be remembered trip.

Many thanks were extended to the Jaycees and their committee for sponsoring several activities throughout the year for the benefit of the Senior class. The money raised will be used for a large party graduation night.

And now the time draws near. The eternal clock quickly ticks away the days and hours, leaving only the impression behind. But with memories like elephants we won't forget for many moons--Chuck's penny jar, victory rides, Mr. Clancy's "swishes," football practice in the rain, class night, the fun of the many trips we took throughout four years, intramural sports, money raising campaigns, Mr. Guinta, night rehearsals for the shows, the splash party, locker room conferences and pranks, the "leaders" club, yearbook deadlines, music in the cafeteria, college boards, Boston Ballroom, the inspiring Christmas scenes in the lobby and the pageants, report cards, driving with Mr. Sedar, our class advisors Mrs. Cooney and Miss Richardson and most of all meeting new friends and forming lasting friendships.

As the end approaches, we the class of 1962, each with our own memories and secret hopes held dear, smoke the last peace pipe on the reservation, declare ourselves proud to have been called Indians, and proud to be associated with B.M.H.S., add ourselves to the Totem Pole and crush the smokey embers of a campfire, maybe someday to call the Council together again to tell our story--a success story.
